

Sunday

*Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking!
If you hear my voice and open the door,
I will come in and eat with you and you with me.
(Revelation 3: 20)*

God who calls us in Christ

As we recognise the gift of your Sabbath rhythm, and your desire for our attention:

We pray for the worship of this day; for the singing, praying, listening and speaking;

For the Word heard, understood & followed.

Silence

Lord, may this day bring us nearer to your Kingdom

TYNDALE
Baptist Church

thanksgiving for children

weddings funerals

communion

welcome

anniversaries

celebrating the festivals prayers for healing

baptisms

OPEN TO GOD
OPEN FOR ALL

pause • relax • chat • listen look • unwind • eat • drink • pray conversation • reflection

community • exploration • worship relaxation • prayer • speakers • groups

TYNDALE
Baptist Church

OPEN TO GOD OPEN FOR ALL

The Tyndale Commitment

*Trusting in the love and faithfulness of God:
We commit ourselves to the life of this church for this time; daily to pray; weekly to worship;
always to serve;*

We will encourage one another and be ready to explore our faith; we will love, accept and forgive each other; we will celebrate the gift of life and new life in Christ. We will embrace our maker's world and seek to share what we have learned.

Monday

Do not be afraid (Luke 2:10)

God of the world.

As we begin this new week, we invite you to share it with us, in all it may hold.

We pray for the world in which we live.

For nations...

For institutions

For people..

May the world that you have made discover today more of your love, through the prayers of our hearts – and those of all who pray; through the work we undertake – and that of all who serve; through the use of our minds – and all who reflect on the meaning of life and the mending of what's broken.

Silence

Lord, hear this prayer and receive all who pray it, in Christ's name

Wednesday

Peace be with you (Luke 24:36)

Lord of life

As we recognise your presence in all the experiences this day will hold,

We pray for ourselves and all whom we love.

For our families

For our friends & neighbours.

For ourselves.

May the lives of our loved ones flourish today; may our friends and neighbours see something of Christ's love in me and come to know it; may I grow more like Christ and find new strength and inspiration for the living of this life.

Silence

Lord, we give ourselves to you once more, hold us in Christ.

Friday

Circle me, Lord, keep hope within, doubt without

God of peace

Today we offer you all that we have achieved with the work of our hands and in our being with others.

We pray for the gift of peace in our lives

Help us to face what we fear

Help us to name what we deny

Help us to let go of what binds us

We offer you all who have found themselves in the shelter of our Sanctuary this week. May they know your peace and hear your call of love.

Silence

Lord, touch our hearts and our lives so that they speak of you, in Christ's name.

Tuesday

My thoughts are not your thoughts and my ways are not your ways (Isaiah 55:8)

Head of the Church

As part of your body, we look to you to guide us.

We pray for this and all churches;

For our life together at Tyndale

For local churches

For the church in the world

May the Church that witnesses to your love in Jesus Christ find strength this day to remain true to its high calling; may its leaders serve with integrity and dignity; may its people find new inspiration as they worship and serve the world; may all those who are served discover the love and welcome that will lead them towards God.

Silence

Lord, we offer you this prayer; bless us in your service, in Christ's name.

Thursday

Circle me, Lord, keep protection near and danger far

God of love

Today we acknowledge your care and company, in all the places we will inhabit.

We pray for the gift of love in our world.

In places where hate rules; may we see signs of reconciliation.

In places where people are imprisoned; may we see signs of freedom.

In places where communities are divided by prejudice or history; may we see signs of new thinking and understanding.

Silence

Lord hear us, Lord graciously hear us, in Christ's name.

Saturday

Circle me, Lord, keep light near and darkness far

God of truth

Today we invite you to be with us in our homes and our leisure time.

We pray for the gift of truth in our society

Shine your light in places where there is deceit and distrust.

Give strength to all who speak out against falsehood.

Undermine all who plot and plan to destroy.

Silence

Lord, teach us to pray and to serve, in Christ's name.