

Maundy Thursday 2020

Love one another as I have loved you

Maundy Thursday this year is different in all sorts of ways, as it takes place during this extraordinary time of 'Lockdown' and so we cannot gather as we would usually gather at the table in Tyndale. Still, we can participate in this act of worship, in the following ways -

This Maundy Thursday communion service is provided as a complete script and is accompanied by a video clip of communion, following the words in this script (beginning at the Peace). You might like to read the script through and share in the act of communion during Maundy Thursday evening.

A reflection by Keith Clements for Maundy Thursday is also provided – this year's Maundy Thursday coincides with the anniversary of the death of Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

Call to Worship

Maundy Thursday begins in this most extraordinary of times, as the themes that swirl around that last supper – betrayal, bewilderment, confusion, impending doom – are not far from our experience. Yet in such an atmosphere we are called to worship, with our weaknesses and fears, our all-too-human frailties and our hopes of-a-piece with the faith that frames our hearts and lives at this time. We worship in trembling and holy fear at the presence of God in the midst of such a time; all are welcome as we look through and beyond present suffering towards the future that is in God’s hands.

Prayer & Lord’s Prayer

Lord God on this night, in the dark atmosphere of Maundy Thursday yet still with hope, we worship you – for your gift of Christ, for the challenge of his way, for the surety of your promises in Him. Tonight, ahead of tomorrow, there’s a sense of an ending, but it’s not quite the end; so also in our frailty, all too aware of our failings and need, we are not completely without hope -

We praise & thank you that the way of Christ is a royal way; that the road of pain is hallowed, that beyond even the fears of this night and the terrors of tomorrow, your endless light in Christ is rising.

Help us now, receive our worship, forgive our frailty and prepare us to continue to serve and follow in a needy world, for Christ's sake, Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen

Reading – John 13:21-38

After saying this Jesus was troubled in spirit, and declared, ‘Very truly, I tell you, one of you will betray me.’ The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he was speaking. One of his disciples—the one whom Jesus loved—was reclining next to him; Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask Jesus of whom he was speaking. So while reclining next to Jesus, he asked him, ‘Lord, who is it?’ Jesus answered, ‘It is the one to whom I give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish.’ So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot. After he received the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, ‘Do quickly what you are going to do.’ Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him. Some thought that, because Judas had the common purse, Jesus was telling him, ‘Buy what we need for the festival’; or, that he should give something to the poor. So, after receiving the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.

When he had gone out, Jesus said, ‘Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him,<sup>[1]</sup> God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, “Where I am going, you cannot come.” I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.’

Simon Peter said to him, ‘Lord, where are you going?’ Jesus answered, ‘Where I am going, you cannot follow me now; but you will follow afterwards.’ Peter said to him, ‘Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.’ Jesus answered, ‘Will you lay down your life for me? Very truly, I tell you, before the cock crows, you will have denied me three times.’

'This is the night'

This is the night of bread and betrayal
 This is the night of wine and fear
 Like Judas, like Peter, like all there
 We do not understand
 What Christ has done for us;
 We do not understand;
 We do not comprehend;
 We cannot grasp where he will go for us,
 The Lord who is our friend.

This is the night of bread and yearning,
 This is the night of wine and peace;
 As bread is broken, wine poured, these Gathered pray and yearn
 For someone to atone for us,
 They take the bread and turn
 And drink the wine and learn
 Of Christ who dies alone for us
 And hope in his return.

This is the night of bread and brokenness,
 This is the night of suffering and wine
 Like the disciple Jesus called 'mine'
 We wonder, 'is it me?'
 The one who eats the bread..
 We think 'who can it be?'
 We pray, 'surely, not me?'
 The one who leaves Christ for dead
 Who is like you and me.

This is the night of bread and giving,
 This is the night of wine and love.
 Commanded by the Lord of love,
 'Just as I have loved you' -
 - loved by the Son of Man -
 'Love one another, too'
 By this all shall know that you
 Are followers of the Galilean,
 Who, betrayed, still loves you.

This, with bread and wine and betrayal
 Is the night we come to know
 What love means, what love will do
 For us. And though the world's light
 Ways shun the glory of Christ,
 Betray him by the sight
 Of other glories, the right
 Glory of the dying Christ
 Is ours - this is the night.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be with us all, Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Leader O Lord we have tried so hard to live better lives;
All To be good tempered, considerate and thoughtful
Leader To put the interests of others alongside our own
All To watch our tongues and not speak hastily
Leader To be cheerful even when things go wrong
All To act well towards people we find it hard to like.
Leader But, always, trying is not enough.
All Help us, that the Spirit's fruit will grow in us, to your glory
PAUSE
Leader Lord have mercy upon us
All Christ have mercy upon us
Leader Lord have mercy upon us, Turn again O Lord, and quicken us
All That your people may rejoice in you
Leader Create in me a clean heart, O God,
All And renew a right spirit within me

Leader Give us again the joy of your promised presence
All And with your spirit of freedom sustain us

SILENCE

Leader When the time was right, God sent the Son.
All Sent Him and suckled him, reared Him and risked Him, filled him with laughter and tears and compassion, filled him with anger and love and devotion

Leader Unwelcomed child, refugee and runaway,
All Christ is God's own son

Leader Villager, tradesman and traveler
All Christ is God's own son

Leader Feeder and teacher, healer, rebel and fool -
All Christ is God's own son

Leader Lover of the unlovable, toucher of the untouchable, forgiver of the unforgivable
All Christ is God's own son

Leader Loved & feared by many & few; befriended & despised by weak & strong; deserted & denied by followers & friends, bone of our bone, flesh of our flesh, speaking and living the life of God.
All Christ is God's own son

Leader The Word became flesh
All And lived among us, full of grace and truth

SILENCE

Leader He was a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief
All For us he grieved

Leader He was summoned to the judgment hall, an enemy of the state and a danger to religion
All By us he was judged

Leader Lashed with tongues and with whips;
All By his stripes we are healed

Leader He was nailed to the cross by human hands
All Bone of our bone, flesh of our flesh

Leader He died, declaring God's forgiveness, fearing he was forsaken, yet trusting in the hand of God.
(Pause)

And by the power of God's hand all that was lost was restored; the life of earth was lifted up, renewed, and taken up into the life of heaven, by the Spirit's power. Before us God sets bread and wine, invites to his Table, and asks us to choose life, that all may be well.

All And all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well

Leader For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world,
All But that the world through him might be saved.

Invitation

The table of the Lord is spread, it is for those who will come and see in broken bread and poured out wine – not mere symbols, but the very substance of his life shed for us on the Cross and raised again the third day. The risen Christ is present among his people and it is here that we meet him. It is for those who know him a little and long to know him more - the invitation is for all those who are seeking him and who are weary of their sin and doubt to come and share the feast.

Words of Institution

For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you; the Lord Jesus on the night he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and said, take, eat, this is my body which is for you, do this in remembrance of me. IN the same way after supper he took the cup saying this cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this whenever you drink it in memory of me – for whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Thanksgiving

Lord we thank you for every moment of awareness of your life in us and in all the world; we thank you for the pleasures of each day, the challenges of each hour, the promises of a future filled with your love. But more than that we thank you for the constant and regular signs that are more than signs – in worship and in service – and supremely here at this table – where bread and wine become more than things of earth as we break them and pour them out and take them to ourselves together with one another; we thank you for your life here – and because here, in every place, and in every place because in Christ you came to that one most terrible place of all, and carried us through.to the glorious hope of his reign life – and gave us his Spirit- Easter Day

Leader Lift up your hearts,
All We lift them to the Lord
 Leader Let us give thanks to God
All It is right to give him thanks and praise

Silent prayer

Leader Here is bread
All For us to feed on Christ
Leader Here is wine
All For us to refresh our souls.
Leader Our suffering Lord calls us to his table
All In Lent we come in brokenness
Leader Our dying Lord calls us his friends
All In Lent we come with faithless hearts
Leader How shall we eat?
All Weeping with those who weep,
Leader How shall we drink?
All Mourning with those who mourn.
Leader The Christ who dies gives us his body and blood
All We eat and drink in faith

Bread & Wine

Leader O Lamb of God you take away the sin of the world
All O Lamb of God you take away the sin of the world
 Leader Have mercy, have mercy upon us
All Grant us, grant us your peace

Silence

Leader In the end, as at the beginning, God is God
All Loved by us or denied by us; praised by us or ignored by us; served by us or scorned by us; yet by the Spirit making us whole for the good of the earth.
 Leader For bread and wine, this place and time
All Thanks be to God

Leader For all I crave that is not mine

All Thanks be to God

Leader For the peace I am promised that the world cannot destroy

All Thanks be to God

Leader For the hope of life forever through Christ's death and resurrection's joy

All Thanks be to God

Leader For all God has done without me, for all God wants to do with me, for all Christ loves around me, for all Christ loves within me

All Thanks be to God

Leader For all the Spirit wants to bring me, for where the Spirit wants to send me, for all the Church has been despite us, for what the world might yet be through us

All Thanks be to God

Benediction
