BPW117 'By Gracious powers' (music played by Sarah Dodds)

By gracious powers so wonderfully sheltered and confidently waiting, come what may, we know that God is with us night and morning, and never fails to meet us each new day.

Yet are our hearts by their old foe tormented still evil days bring burdens hard to bear; o give our frightened souls the sure salvation for which, O Lord, you taught to prepare.

And when the cup you give is filled to brimming with bitter suffering, hard to understand, we take it gladly, trusting though with trembling, out of so good and so beloved a hand.

If once again, in this mixed world, you give us the joy we had, the brightness of your sun, we shall recall what we have learned through sorrow,
and dedicate our lives to you alone.

Now as your silence deeply spreads around us, open our ears to hear your children raise from all the world, from every nation round us, to you their universal hymn of praise.

1945)
